

Proclamation

*By Executive order of the Honorable Michael R. Ragsdale, Knox County Executive
it is hereby proclaimed:*

HARRY BRYAN DAY

- WHEREAS, Harry Bryan has announced his retirement as Knox County Extension Agent and Leader, a position he has held since 1976; and
- WHEREAS, he graduated from Virginia Tech with a B.S. degree in Agriculture in 1965 and completed his Masters' degree from UT in 1972; and
- WHEREAS, under his leadership as Extension Agent and Leader, the County Extension programs have flourished and have been recognized in state and national awards for their ongoing efforts; and
- WHEREAS, Harry has worked closely with the Knox County Livestock and Cattlemen's Association during his tenure, and has used all resources available to him to assist farmers and producers; and
- WHEREAS, Harry Bryan was instrumental in planning and winning support toward the completion of the Knoxville Livestock Center which has become the largest livestock auction market in the Southeast; and
- WHEREAS, On Behalf of Knox County, we honor and recognize Harry Bryan for his outstanding accomplishments as Extension Agent and Leader, and for his active involvement in civic and community organizations, We offer our best wishes to Harry and Laura and their family in the days and years ahead. Happy Retirement, Harry!

NOW THEREFORE, I, MICHAEL R. RAGSDALE, KNOX COUNTY EXECUTIVE, do hereby proclaim December 16, 2002 as

HARRY BRYAN DAY

In Knox County, and urge all citizens to join me in this observance.

Let all within the reach of this proclamation heed its directive (s).

His Honor the Knox County Executive

Michael R. Ragsdale

County of Knox

Knoxville, Tennessee